A Word from your President

Professor Ruth McPhail

Dear Members,

Well it is with sadness that we farewelled Barbara Goldner this month. To those who had her as a tutor she was dedicated and professional at all times with an eye for blending and mixing. She was an award winner and an active member of the RQAS and dear friend and mentor to many. Our thoughts are with her family, friends and students. She will be very missed.

Updates: We have had to make do with a new entry over the past 5 weeks and it has been a challenge without doubt! Thanks to those who have been so supportive. BUT the good news is the lift is almost here! It missed it's boat transfer in Singapore and so was delayed by a week...again...this has been a lesson in patience! Also a huge team effort and I can not say how much your committee has done in this last term to keep the boat afloat! VP Michael Hooper, Lynne Astill (off on a trip of a life time!) Leanne Manns, Stephanie and Bronte Strout, Fulvia Meadowcroft our Secretary, Ian Owles, Margaret Andrews, Effie Mouzakitis, Cheryl Stone, Treasurer Bill Rees, and Errol Pike, and the hanging team. We are very pleased with our progress this term and I know we still have a way to go—fill you in at the AGM.

The AGM has been called by the VP. We still are waiting on the auditors but fingers crossed we will be ready to go as planned—ALL POSITIONS are AVAILABLE.

Stay creative...Ruth

The Gold Coast Royal Art Show

This was the first of the newly named major exhibition and member competition, (Ex “The Big Art Awards”) and a really big success considering the starting of the lift works taking place which was unfortunate, but at least the lift is now almost here. A big thanks will have to go out to all those members who gave up a lot of their time to put the Art Show into place and follow it through to the successful opening by the Lord Mayor Tom Tate.

We also have to thank our Sponsors, some who sponsor year after year. There is Musgrave Art who tend to answer our calling at any time, they certainly deserve your support when you are in need.

We had a new sponsor this year to the value of a $1,000 voucher for art material, ADFAS, Australian Decorative & Fine Art Society in the community. This is a very interesting Society that some of our members could be interested in. It was through one of our members, Carol Sulzer, who is with ADFAS also, that we received this sponsor. Thank you Carol, it is hoped we have a long relationship. I suggest our members take a look at their site
<https://www.adfas.org.au>

Other Sponsors we have are Heather Blackstock, Mal Hodges, and also ‘The Left Bank Gallery’ Framers.

==== SUGGESTIONS ====

Any suggestion you may have will always be looked into as long as it has a name to it. . . If no name, , , into the bin !

THE LIFT

Rest in peace Barbara

Barbara was a long standing member of our RQAS GC and took on Tutoring of a Tuesday morning. She was well loved by her pupils and would always be there for them no matter how she was feeling, Some of her works can be seen this month on the gallery East Wall.

These paintings are not for sale. Barbara will be sadly missed. The gallery will not be the same without her.

Above; Barbara receiving one of her 3 Awards that she received on the night by the Lord Mayor Tom Tate

Please ! Please ! Please !

Write a receipt for all sales, this includes New & Renewal of Memberships

When writing a receipt, PRINT in the 'Receipt Book' AND would members please print all particulars, if it's a . . . PAINTING: . . .

The name of the person buying and their address (also Email if possible), then the Artist and title of the painting. This applies to the 'Gift Shop' as well. CARDS: . . .

This is much the same as above except the address and email aren't really necessary, but you MUST list each card, with who's card it is, (the Artist) and the price of each..... Then the total.

Studio of a Weekend

Unfortunately because we now have regular bookings for the Studio we can no longer give free painting sessions of a weekend (Saturdays and / or Sundays. Of course there is always 'Catswingers' of a Friday which is only $5 for all day. (The way money is these days you could almost say that it's free).

$5 all day, come and go as you wish,
9.30—4.00.

If there is a group that wishes to book the studio, contact Leanne Manns on 0429 875 441.

Leanne will be able to tell you if there is anything available.

Renewal of Membership

2019 will see the start of all renewal of memberships fall due on the 1st of January each year.

Renewing your membership you must fill in a 'Renew Membership' form which can be printed from our web site or pick one up from the front desk.

To have all memberships due on the one date, not only makes it easier for members to remember when to pay, but also the office doesn't have to look up when a member is due.

This I'm sure you will agree is the better way for our society to operate. So as most have, or will pay pro-rata until the end of the year, your annual membership will be due on the 1st of January 2019

PAINTINGS in the GALLERY

Your work is hung in the gallery by volunteers who give up their time to hang your work. They hang under the guidance of Leanne who is 'Gallery Director. I think you will agree with me, she does an excellent job. Any complaints should be directed to her and her alone. Not to the member on duty. "You can please some members some of the time, but not all, of the members all of the time". W.C.
