A word from our president Michael Hooper

Hi to all the good readers of our Newsletters that Eli puts together. Yes I know sometimes it has a couple of extra pages but at least we have Eli who spends her time putting it together with a variety of interesting information, for you to read.

Being President is possibly a job that one might say is thankless, the same as other positions on the committee. However, I have found it quite the opposite. I have got to actually know a lot of our members, not just as a member but as a person. Being a member has all its benefits but being President, you know you are doing something to not only keep this society and gallery running for its members but also for our community.

This coming year I will endeavour to get ART in the PARK back to its former glory as it attracted lots of people and visitors to the gallery.

I would like to thank our Committee for all the work they have done and now as a retiring President I would like to thank all our members for supporting me during my term in office. It has been an honour and pleasure.

I know you will all support our incoming committee,
Michael

Escape Artists Monthly paint-out

NOTICE TO ALL RQAS GOLD COAST ESCAPE ARTISTS

Location for Plein Air painting Wednesday 14 September 2022

Participation as an ESCAPE ARTIST is open to all RQAS members. This month we will be gathering to paint near the Currumbin Valley Rock Pools located 10 to 15 minutes drive from Currumbin Beach along Currumbin Creek Road. You will have to chance to paint overlooking the pools or the scenic hillside views opposite.

Bring your own painting gear, easel, table, seat, hat, sun screen, insect repellent, water, perhaps a sun umbrella and a trolley, and lunch if you want to do so. There is a good cafe nearby where we may be able to enjoy the opportunity for lunch together.

Please let me know if you have any favourite spots where you think we should visit to paint in the future.

Some of the RQAS Escape Artists in action recently at the Gold Coast Historical Museum at 8 Elliott Street, Bundall.

If you are interested in plein air painting, you are welcome to join with the RQAS Escape Artists who regularly paint in outdoor locations, escaping from the four walls of their studios. A different location is chosen for each paint-out by the group which occurs on the second Wednesday of each month, excluding January.

Sunday 11 SEPTEMBER is the next Art in the Park event (every second Sunday of the month). Bring the art you'd like to sell. Set up as early as you wish. Showcase your artistic skills with a demonstration of painting!

The success of this kind of monthly event depends on all of us - you and me! The more gazebos and market umbrellas in the park the better. People are attracted to people doing interesting things in public spaces.

Bring out those stored away paintings and show them to the passers-by. Bring your paints, easels, canvases or boards. Showcase your artistic skills and sell some art!

Paul Crollick - Artist 2022

Paul is an indigenous abstract artist influenced by his indigenous heritage through Aunty Minnie Crollick, a resident of Woorabinda community, approx. 100km west of Gladstone, Qld as well as contemporary abstract art trends.

Paul is self-taught, commenced painting in 2012 and has work in private collections. He is a member of RQAS GC and has exhibited work at the Broadbeach Gallery, Sydney Royal Easter Show, Parramatta Town Hall and Singleton Art Prize. His work includes painting on canvas or board, message sticks, painting on sandstone rock, thus combining his indigenous heritage with contemporary abstract art styles.

Bila Muuji

Paul believes that art is as individual as the artist and art appreciation as individual as the art buyer. Sometimes an art work just speaks to a person and they have to buy it.

Imre Zsido – Artist

The new Madonna

Imre was born in Budapest, Hungary immigrating to Melbourne in 1975 and with his family moved to the Gold Coast in early 2017. Imre is a member of the Victorian Artist's Society and the Royal Queensland Art Society.

Imre's interest in art started at an early age. At school, noted for his artistic skills, his teacher often asked him to draw and paint banners, cards, etc... for class and school functions. He studied the life and works of Renaissance Artists such as Leonardo Da Vinci and Michelangelo, but was greatly influenced by Salvador Dali and other Surrealists. Later, in Italian and German Refugee Camps, he drew ink sketches, stimulating his desire to work in black and white, improving his drawing skills. Always interested in telling stories in his art, Imre advanced to bigger and more complicated work to accommodate the story telling.

In Australia, Imre worked in electronics during the day, then after work, into the morning hours, developed his artistic skills. Some of the poster size works took 200-300 hours to complete and are very detailed. His love of story-telling informed his art style which fits into both Fantasy and Surrealistic genres.

Imre won his first award at the Dandenong Festival of Music and Art for Youth in 1976. Since then he has won numerous awards and commendations throughout Australia including receiving a personal letter from Sir William Dargie (Australia's leading artist and art teacher). Imre has produced hundreds of drawings and completed private commissions in Australia and the USA. Imre is proud to be completely self-taught and educated and hopes to continue to create many interesting, quality artworks into the future.

Imre's inspiration / style is drawn from Surrealist-Fantasy Art which uses symbolic imagery to express subconscious processes, inner obsessions and unlimited fantasy. Universal themes and self-discovery appear throughout his work. Absurdity and human excesses as well as new visual possibilities revealed by science and technology inspire his artwork. An avid reader Imre draws or paints fantastic, internal imagery inspired by books as well as visual art.

Red Umbrella

Imre says he would like to be a good artist combining active questioning with listening. His love of art impels him to keep developing his art practice with more self-training, learning different drawing and painting techniques. He hopes that his symbolic works could help more people enjoy and understand art and that there could be a dialogue between his art and the viewer to help people through their life experiences, perceptions and connection with others. Modestly, Imre has the hope that he could work on book illustrations full-time like a professional (he already is!).

STOREROOM Notice

We still have paintings cluttering up the storeroom leaving no room for other things of importance for the gallery. Some paintings have been left here for YEARS!

Please make an effort to remove your paintings from the storeroom asap. Your missing painting may well be here. Please come in and take a look. We may have no option but to try to sell these at monthly Art in the Park events. Even give them away if there aren't buyers. These paintings have to go so we have room for other gallery related materials. Please help.
