

Highlights – February RQAS ArtFresco event

What a beautiful morning we had at Syndicate Road for our February painting meet! Fourteen artists turned up and the weather stayed fine for us. I think this is my favourite spot! David, Sandra and Janette never seem to tire of it, having been there many times.

Sandra has suggested we go out fortnightly, thus alternating with Urban Sketchers' event on every second Saturday. We can give it a go and see what happens! I'm also going to investigate setting up a FB site similar to Urban Sketchers. Let's discuss dates etc next time we're out together.

Our next event will be at Cascade Gardens, Broadbeach on Wednesday the 12th March.

It's nice and central on the Gold Coast Highway on the left, heading north, just past the lights at Macca's, not far from the gallery. There's no café there but there are toilets and lots of shade. (2690 Gold Coast Highway.)

Jenny had a great view!

Myllinda was well set up but she and I decided to cull our gear from now on!

The reflections were amazing when the sun came out
