

Head & Shoulders Drawing Intensive Workshops

"I sometimes think there is nothing so delightful as drawing" Vincent van Gogh

Mondays 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm; August 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

These five consecutive weeks of 3-hour intensive workshops are designed to assist you to see in new ways using mind and body integration in a relaxing, social environment that nurtures your creativity. You will learn to tune in to your right brain ability to really see, aided by our unique approach to understanding the underlying facial anatomy.

Guided tuition, demonstrations, handouts, and gentle, relaxing exercises will be included along with body mapping, (drawing directly on our life model) and study of our skeleton, Mr. Bone Jangles. Subjects covered include:

- Proportions and anatomy of head & shoulders
- 'Fleshing out' – essential planes of the face
- Study of facial features (eyes, nose, mouth)
- Describing volume, shapes, and value (shading)
- The icing on the cake! Hair and individual features

Join Annette Raff and Ree Willison (from Art & Soul) as they guide you through a unique approach to life drawing. Ree brings extensive knowledge and awareness of 'bodies' as a professional life model, yoga teacher and kinesiologist. She combines gentle movement and breathing exercises to relax the body and energise right brain creativity. With Annette's qualifications in fine art and design, extensive background as an award-winning artist and teacher in a variety of mediums and foundational drawing skills, Annette believes that drawing is really a matter of learning to 'see'. You will practice strategies to un-block habits hindering your ability to see what is really there as opposed to what you think you see.
