John McConnochie has been an accomplished international artist and art tutor for forty years.

He has held tutoring studio since 1982, and held seminars and Workshops constantly through those years, from studio practice in various Colleges of Art, T.A.F.E colleges Art Societies, art groups and Community centres on the East coast of Australia.

He has been exhibiting internationally for over 30 years.

John was awarded The Mosman art Prize, in 1986, and has had held over 15 solo exhibitions, and numerous mixed shows.

He has completed numerous commissions, for such clients as, The National Bank of Australia, Security Pacific Bank Los Angeles U.S.A, Cathay Pacific, Far Pavilions, amongst others, as well as a variety of private clients.

Nowadays he brings disparate images together and however dramatic or poignant, they may be, they remain a vehicle for abstract principles, not to support a particular narrative.

During the last five years his work has been included in International Exhibitions in USA, Spain, Italy, Argentina, and Russia.
